

Actions of the process methods			CoSGOP elements	LUDA Regeneration Process
SEA	SA	PPtS		Steps	Assessment tasks
Designation of responsible authorities Identification of other relevant plans, programmes and environmental protection objectives Identification of SEA objectives and targets	Appointment of an independent team Development of the SA Framework (sustainable development objectives, targets and indicators)	Setting the strategic question Identification of the driving forces of change	Stakeholder analysis	Diagnosis	Stakeholder analysis Resources and limitations analysis Identification of problems and potentials Identification of drivers for change Development of distress indicators
		Identification of the main issues and trends Identification of the 'critical uncertainties'	Problems and potentials
Collection of baseline information Identification of environmental problems Deciding the scope of SEA	Testing the strategic objectives against the SA Framework	Creating different scenarios Testing policy options Identification of turning points Producing a preferred future vision or 'prospective'	Goals and alternatives	Visioning	Creating hierarchy of problems – identifying priority action areas Development and selection of scenarios Development of policies with clear objectives and targets
Identification of alternatives	Identification of issues and options
Assessment of environmental effects Public consultation on plan and environmental report Inclusion of the consultation findings into account in preparing the plan	Appraisal of strategic options Appraisal of policies		Improvement programme Impact assessment	Programming	Formulating the regeneration plan Appraisal of the plan
	Recording and reporting of findings		Projects and implementation	Implementing	Selection and appraisal of the projects and initiatives Project management
Monitoring and evaluating	Monitoring and evaluation		Monitoring and adjustment	Monitoring	Evaluation of change Evaluation of performance Remedial actions